NEW BRITAIN—Members of the Board of Directors, Corporators and other avid supporters of CCARC's vision to provide personalized services to persons with disabilities came together on September 9 to put the finishing touches on their upcoming charitable event scheduled to be held at Timberlin Golf Course in Berlin on Wednesday, September 16. CCARC's 45th Annual Golf Open raises important funds to sustain day and residential programs for individuals facing a variety of challenges related to physical and intellectual limitations.

Anne Ruwet, CEO of CCARC said, "Thanks to the generous support of corporations, businesses and individuals, funds raised through the Golf Open help address the significant gap that exists between the state funding we receive and the actual cost of providing care. We are incredibly grateful to Attorney John Barbieri for heading up this event for 33 years now, as well as all of the volunteers, sponsors, donors and golfers who contribute their time and resources to make this one of the most fun and successful golf fundraisers in the area. We are especially pleased to have longtime friend and supporter, Jean Plocharczyk, serve as this year's Honorary Chair."

Tournament Sponsor Stanley Black & Decker is flanked by an impressive group of major sponsors such as Farmington Bank, Webster Bank, Constitution Advisory Group, Schuster Driscoll, TD Bank and Associated Insurance Services.

Following the tournament, a dinner featuring awards, more than 40 fabulous raffle prizes and an exciting live auction will be held at the St. George Greek Orthodox Hall in New Britain. Interested in joining in the fun? Contact Barbara Marzi or Dawn D'Amato at CCARC by calling 860-229-6665.
