PRESS RELEASE

CCARC To Hold Annual Awards Dinner

CCARC will be holding its Annual Awards Dinner on Wednesday, May 14th at St. George's Greek Orthodox Hall. This organization is central Connecticut's leading nonprofit dedicated to helping people with disabilities. It was founded in 1952 and is committed to providing personalized services to people with disabilities to help make their dreams happen.

CCARC will be giving awards to: Faith Ondrick, a long time Board member and volunteer, as their "Person of the Year," Representative Elizabeth Boukus as their "Partner in Care," Grace C.M.E. Church and Pastor Thomas Mills, Jr. as their "Partner in Community," and Chris Conlon of Smokin' with Chris Restaurant as their "Partner in Employment."

New Directors and Corporators will be inducted. Employees will be honored for their years of service. And, a person that has benefited from all that CCARC has to offer will be profiled.

Tickets are $35. For more information about the event or about the services CCARC provides or how to support the organization, please contact Anne Ruwet at 860-229-6665. Additional information may be found at ccarc.com.
