CCARC Individuals Enjoy Spring Dance!

Doing the Limbo!

On a rainy, dreary evening this spring about 130 individuals from CCARC and the community gathered at St. Jerome Church to dine and dance the night away. This has been happening for over 20 years. Some of the comments heard before the dance included someone who was just excited about all the food! Dinner included a generous Italian meal with plenty of cookies to top it off. The annual event was provided by the Italian Heritage Foundation, formerly the Unico Club. Music ranged from top 40 to Country to the ever popular limbo! Some enjoyed singing along and the karaoke was a lot of fun.

A parent commented how pleased she was that she had stayed and what an enjoyable evening it was. The anticipation lives up to the reality of the event. People come alive at this dine and dance. For some, this may be the only time they get out on a yearly basis to something that is clearly catered just to them. There were nothing but smiles to be had – all around – attendees and volunteers. Some really came out of their shell.

Anthony Lazzaro, the President of the Italian Heritage Foundation said “It’s always a joy for us to be here!”
