BERLIN — CCARC, Central Connecticut's agency supporting people with disabilities, will hold its annual golf tournament Wednesday, Sept. 10, at Timberlin Golf Course in Berlin.

As always, the group's major fundraiser of the year promises a day of fun on the course with more than 100 golfers. Lunch will be provided on the course and the day will wrap up with dinner provided by Teresa's Catering at the St. George Greek Orthodox Hall in New Britain, where additional games will be featured.

Sponsors include Farmington Bank, Schuster Driscoll, Stanley Black & Decker, Webster Bank, TD Bank, Constitution Advisory Group, New Britain Transportation and Rose & Kiernan.

CCARC is central Connecticut's leading nonprofit dedicated to helping people with disabilities. Money raised at the golf tournament will help sustain services provided by the organization, as there has not been a "cost of care" increase from the state in nearly a decade.
